UM ALUM WINS NATIONAL EDUCATOR AWARD

MISSOULA --

A University of Montana—Missoula graduate who now is director of special education and student services for the Great Falls public schools recently received a National Educator Award as one of five outstanding educators in Montana.

Gail Cleveland was among 150 educators in 30 states named for this recognition by the Milken Family Foundation. She'll receive the $25,000 award at the foundation's upcoming national education conference in Los Angeles.

Cleveland earned a doctorate in education at UM in 1994.
